Regimental Orders

by

Colonel Albert Pelley, Commanding Officer

May 1, 2009

100. Congratulations and Appreciation

Congratulations to all ranks of Avalon Battalion and Trinity Conception Battalion on the success of their respective Spring Parades.

Congratulations to the Regimental Band on the success of their concert in support of the Belize Mission.

Congratulations to Carbonear Company on the celebration of their 10th Anniversary.

Congratulations to the newly elected executive of the Avalon Battalion W&NCO's Mess:

- President WO2 Melissa Mercer
- Vice President Sgt. Kathleen Mercer
- Treasurer Sgt. Graham Bishop
- Secretary Cpl. Samantha Tippet

Congratulations to Honourary Colonel V.L.R. Ash who recently received a certificate of appreciation from the Canadian Cadet Instructors Cadre for the part he played in the acceptance and formation of #2355 CLB Army Cadet Corps in 1949. He, along with Former Honourary Colonel J.M.C. Facey and Moses Morgan, recommended the acceptance of the cadet movement within the ranks of the CLB, thus producing the oldest cadet corps in the province of Newfoundland and Labrador.

Congratulations to Colonel C.F. Rogers who will travel to Ottawa to accept a National Lifetime Achievement Award for his role within #2355 CLB Army Cadet Corps. He is the first and only officer from Newfoundland and Labrador, within the land, sea, and air movement to receive such an award.

Both Colonel Ash and Colonel Rogers continue to support and promote # 2355 CLB Army Cadet Corps, one of the finest units within the Cadet movement in Newfoundland and Labrador.
